Osler is a leading Canadian law firm with a dedicated team of M&A specialists who have a proven track record in handling cross-border transactions. We are recognized for our comprehensive legal services across key practice areas, making us the go-to partner for foreign law firms requiring expert Canadian legal support on M&A matters.

At Osler, we have a deep history of advising on cross-border M&A transactions, helping foreign law firms and their clients navigate the complexities of Canadian law. With a full suite of complementary practice areas — including Tax, Intellectual Property, Competition/Antitrust, Foreign Investment, Employment Law, Financial Services, Privacy and Data Management, Pensions and Benefits, Executive Compensation and Commercial Law — our team is uniquely positioned to assist with all aspects of Canadian M&A work, ensuring seamless integration and success for cross-border deals.

Why refer your Canadian M&A matters to us?

Navigating the Canadian legal landscape in an M&A transaction requires specialized knowledge and a deep understanding of both domestic and international business practices.

Proven track record in cross-border M&A

As leading M&A lawyers in Canada, we bring years of experience handling high-stakes cross-border transactions, providing practical and strategic advice to clients from around the world.

Comprehensive Canadian expertise

We provide full-service support across all aspects of M&A transactions, ensuring that every element of a deal — from tax structuring to governance considerations — is addressed with precision.

Seamless cross-border collaboration

Our team works closely with your firm to ensure a smooth, coordinated approach across multiple jurisdictions, helping to align the legal frameworks of Canada with the international components of the transaction.

Tailored legal solutions

We understand the nuances of cross-border transactions and tailor our advice to meet the specific needs of foreign clients doing business in Canada.
