Angelie is a recent graduate of Osgoode Hall Law School and holds an HBA from the Ivey Business School at Western University.

At Osgoode, Angelie served as a Caseworker at the Investor Protection Clinic, where she provided pro bono legal assistance to investors who had suffered financial harm. She has developed strong appellate advocacy skills through her participation in multiple moot competitions. Angelie won the first-place championship at Osgoode’s Constitutional Law Moot, earned Top Appellant Team at the Cassels Cup at the Ontario Court of Appeal, and was selected to represent Osgoode at the Gale Cup Moot. She also has extensive experience mentoring and coaching both undergraduate and law school moot teams.

Before law school, Angelie worked as an Impact Investing analyst at Genus Capital Management and as a research assistant within the Faculty of Sustainability at the Ivey Business School.
