

Ben Beiles

Summer Student

.....

Toronto

(416) 862-6579

bbeiles@osler.com

.....

Ben has completed his second year of the JD program at the University of Toronto. Prior to law school, he worked as an Assistant Negotiator for Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs Canada. He obtained a Bachelors of Public Affairs and Policy Management from Carleton University.

During his time at law school, Ben has been involved with the David Asper Centre for Constitutional Rights, where he has worked on projects relating to the notwithstanding clause and Indigenous self-government. He is also the incoming Editor-in-Chief of the University of Toronto Faculty of Law Review. Ben participated in the Laskin Moot, placing as the second best oralist and as the top pair in the competition.

Awards and Recognition

- University of Toronto Faculty of Law, Langford Rowell Prize for ranking first in first year
- University of Toronto Faculty of Law, Burgoyne Award of Excellence for performance in Indigenous Peoples and the Law

Community Involvement

- David Asper Centre for Constitutional Rights, Working Group Co-Leader
- University of Toronto Faculty of Law Review, Editor-in-Chief
- University of Toronto International Law Society, Co-President
- Academic Success Program, Academic Advisor

Credentials

Education

- University of Toronto, JD (2026)
- Carleton University, BPAPM (2022)

.....

Languages

- English