

Cassie Heward

Summer Student

Toronto

(416) 862-6469

cheward@osler.com

Cassie’s current pursuit of a JD/Master of Global Affairs has contributed to her academic background in law, foreign affairs, business and economics. She has taken courses such as International Trade Law, Business Organizations, master’s-level International Economics, Statistics, and Markets research that will support her work at Osler. As a former Banking Advisor at RBC, Cassie developed extensive client-facing and advisory experience. At Jackman Law, Cassie partook in two moots: the Cassels Brock Cup (2025) and Callaghan Cup (2026). For the Callaghan Cup, she and her co-counsel were awarded best overall moot team and best Appellant factum.

Community Involvement

- Board Member/Volunteer, West Island Women’s Shelter (Montreal) – 2020-2023

Credentials

Education

- University of Toronto, JD/MGA (2027)
- George Washington University, Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs

Languages

- English
- French