Andrea is an associate in our Disputes Group. She maintains a broad civil and commercial litigation practice, with experience in class action defence, tax litigation, cybersecurity breach responses, procedural motions, and arbitration matters. She regularly advises emerging and high growth companies on dispute resolution strategies while considering their business objectives and priorities. In her current practice, Andrea leverages her previous work with the Osler Works Transactional team and Privacy Group. Andrea is an active member of Pro Bono Ontario, seeking opportunities to give back to the community and advocate for important causes.

Andrea graduated from the University of Ottawa’s J.D. program. During her studies, she served as a research assistant at the Centre for Law, Technology and Society and was funded to participate in an exchange program at the University of Haifa that focused on global technology law and policy. Prior to law school, she obtained a Bachelor of Commerce with a specialization in Strategy & Entrepreneurship from the University of Windsor, where she graduated with distinction.
