Areas of Expertise

Insolvency and Restructuring

Ben is an associate in the Insolvency and Restructuring Group of our Toronto office. He practises corporate and commercial law in the areas of corporate restructuring, financial services and private equity, with a focus on restructurings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, and Canada Business Corporations Act. He has represented and advised debtors, court officers, creditors, and lenders.

Ben was previously a Judicial Law Clerk at the Court of Appeal for British Columbia.

Ben received his JD from the University of British Columbia in 2019, where he received several academic awards, including prizes in constitutional law and advocacy for his performance in the Corporate Securities Moot. During law school, Ben volunteered for the Multiple Sclerosis Society through Pro Bono Students Canada, was an editor of the UBC Law Review and held an executive position on the Law and Business society. Ben was also a research assistant to several faculty members in the areas of contract law, equity, personal property security law, securities law and private international law. Prior to law school, Ben graduated with distinction from the Ivey Business School.
