Areas of Expertise

Disputes

Corrine is an associate in the Disputes Group of our Calgary office. Corrine graduated from McGill Law’s dual BCL/JD program and clerked at the Court of King’s Bench of Alberta before returning to Osler to complete her articling term. In law school, Corrine was a Senior Student Advocate at the Legal Information Clinic at McGill, a Senior Editor on the McGill Journal of Sustainable Development Law, and a Teaching Assistant for 1L Constitutional Law. She worked as a Research Assistant at the Nahum Gelber Law Library and completed a clerkship for course credit at the Quebec Superior Court. Before joining Osler, Corrine led business partnerships at an employment equity-focused non-profit.
