Laura is a strategic litigator with a formidable record of successes in class actions and high-stakes commercial disputes.

She is the trusted choice for clients across many industries, to navigate their most challenging legal issues.

Laura is known for her deep command of Canadian law, strategic insight and calm focus. She cuts through complexity and works with clients to develop an approach tailored to their needs, and forges a clear path forward — at the negotiating table or in the courtroom.

Her expertise is widely recognized, reflecting the respect she commands in the legal industry. She has been honoured by Chambers Canada, The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, and Benchmark Litigation Canada, where she is listed among the Top 100 Women Litigators in Canada. Her early career was marked by significant achievements, including the Treasurer's Medal for the highest marks in the Ontario Bar admission course and a prestigious clerkship at the Court of Appeal for Ontario. Laura began her legal career as a criminal defence lawyer, an experience that shaped her direct and strategic advocacy style.

Highlighted by Chambers Canada, Laura received the following client praise: "I trust her judgement and ability to deal with other parties in a way that is constructive and ultimately beneficial to our position. She is incredibly adept at understanding the interests of others." Another client describes Laura: "She's really smart, great at strategizing and good on her feet too."
