

Samantha Nishikawa

Business Architecture Lawyer, Legal Operations

Vancouver

(604) 692-2702

snishikawa@osler.com

Bar Admission: British Columbia, 2018

Areas of Expertise

Real Estate

Samantha Nishikawa is a Business Architecture Lawyer on the Legal Operations team. In her role, Sam is responsible for practice transformation with a particular focus on the Technology and Real Estate practice areas. Prior to joining Osler Works, Samantha most recently held a Corporate Counsel position at a technology company, and prior to this practiced as a Commercial Real Estate Associate at a major firm.

Our Legal Operations team is focused on transaction practice and enterprise initiatives to help transform how we provide legal services to our clients.

Credentials

Education

University of British Columbia, Juris Doctor McGill University, Bachelor's Degree (Honours), International Development and Minor in Sociology

Languages

- English