Sarah is a trusted advisor and advocate for clients facing domestic and international disputes, investigations, regulatory matters, and compliance issues. She is able to offer practical and timely strategies to clients seeking to proactively manage risk and strategically and effectively respond to issues when they arise.

She has experience navigating complex commercial and civil litigation matters, domestic and international commercial arbitrations, investor-state arbitrations, government investigations and white-collar matters, enforcement proceedings, compliance and governance reviews, securities disputes, trade disputes, tax disputes, internal investigations, and drafting dispute resolution, trade, anti-corruption and anti-money laundering provisions in various commercial agreements. Sarah was previously seconded to the Enforcement Branch of the Ontario Securities Commission, worked in the International Arbitration practice group of a major global firm in Paris, and completed a summer clerkship at the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

Active in the arbitration community, Sarah serves on the Executive Board of Young Canadian Arbitration Practitioners (YCAP) as the Chair – Policy and Advocacy Committee.
