

Stephanie Clark

Associate, Disputes

Calgary

(403) 260-7034

sclark@osler.com

Bar Admission: Alberta, 2017

Areas of Expertise

- Health
- Disputes
- Domestic and International Arbitration

Stephanie is an associate in the Disputes Group of our Calgary office. She practices general commercial litigation with a focus on energy and environmental matters, contract disputes, and complex commercial arbitrations. Stephanie has appeared at the Court of King's Bench and the Provincial Court of Alberta, and has experience conducting matters before the Supreme Court of Canada. Stephanie has also conducted an array of disputes in domestic and international arbitration proceedings under various institutional and ad hoc rules. Stephanie's arbitration experience includes dealing with significant energy disputes involving construction issues, joint venture operations, and operating agreements.

She has been admitted as a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. Prior to joining Osler, Stephanie was an associate with another prominent national law firm.

Awards and Recognition

- Best Lawyers in Canada: Corporate and Commercial Litigation (Ones to Watch)

Community Involvement

- Institute for Transnational Arbitration, Advisory Board Member
- ICC Young Arbitration and ADR Forum (YAAF), North American Representative (2024-2026 Mandate)

Credentials

Education

- University of Calgary, BA, 2010 (with Distinction)
- University of Calgary, BA, 2010 (with First Class Honours)
- McGill University, BCL, 2015
- McGill University, LLB, 2015

.....

Languages

- English

.....

Professional Affiliations

- Law Society of Alberta
- Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
- Young Canadian Arbitration Practitioners
- Calgary Bar Association